

Marsh Medical Practice

Marsh Medical Practice have been awarded a prestigious Silver award by the Defence Employer Recognition Scheme.

Dr Carl Deaney, owner of Marsh Medical Practice said: "This is another fantastic achievement for the Practice. Marsh Medical Practice is honoured to receive the Silver award this year. This award recognises our commitment to the ongoing support of the armed forces veteran community.

and to be able to support our practice population of veterans on a daily basis. We are proud to support those people who have made sacrifices on behalf of the nation and will continue to offer support to our veterans and their families."

Commenting on the announcement of the 2018 Employer Recognition Scheme Silver awards, Minister for Defence Personnel and Veterans, the Rt Hon Tobias Ellwood MP said:

"I am delighted to congratulate the recipients of this year's Employer Recognition Scheme Silver awards. A Silver award recognises the fantastic efforts of employers throughout the UK who have both elevated their commitments under the Armed Forces Covenant and provided actual benefit to the Armed Forces Community. The winners should all be proud of the life-changing impact and fresh opportunities they are providing to our Reservists, veterans, wounded injured and sick and their families. We've seen a record number of winners this year, which shows that the Armed Forces family talent pool is also providing tangible business benefit."

Lincolnshire has a strong military history and has a large veteran population. Marsh fully embraces the ethos of the Armed Forces Covenant that our nation should ensure that those who serve or who have served in the armed forces, and their families, are treated with fairness and respect. Marsh Medical Practice is proud to have military veterans and family members as part of our team
